

2010 PUBLICATIONS and MERCHANDISE ORDER FORM

Mouse over to type in a field. When complete, Refresh, Save & Print then mail to address above with the applicable payment.

- NEW! NOFA-NY Introduces The Organic Dairy Handbook, A Comprehensive Guide for the Transition and Beyond, A whole farm management resource for farmers interested in organic production. This handbook outlines the practical knowledge and systematic understanding necessary for conventional farmers to make a successful transition to organic production, for new farmers to develop a successful organic dairy business and for newly transitioned organic dairy farmers to strengthen their overall farm management. NOFA-NY, 2009. 304pp. $21.00*
- Transitioning to Organic Dairy, Self-Assessment Workbook, New Guide for Organic Dairy Farmers uses a whole farm approach to the transition process and is based on the experiences of successful organic dairy farmers. This publication is an interactive resource that gives farmers tools to identify the risks they may face on their own farm throughout the transition to organic production. It also helps farmers develop plans to mitigate those risks. This resource will be useful for conventional dairy farmers interested in learning more about organic production, farmers who have recently transitioned to organic dairy and agricultural professionals assisting farmers in the transition to organic management. NOFA-NY, 2009. 88pp. $14.50*
- From Tinkering to Torquing, A Beginner's Guide to Tractors and Tools, Covers the finer points of antique tractor restoration and repair. From the tools of the trade, to tractor parts, to the use of common household objects in a pinch, explore what it's like to be a newcomer to the world of antique tractors, mechanics, shop equipment, tools, engines and transmissions. Roger Welsch, 2005. 224 pp. $25.00*
- Sharing the Harvest, 2nd Edition, "is an extraordinary book, an opening to a new world in which growing and eating food will be a sharing among humans, between farmers and surrounding communities, not a commercial venture for profit. Elizabeth Henderson, with Robyn Van En, 2007. 303pp. $32.00*
- This Common Ground, Seasons on an Organic Farm, A beautifully written chronicle of the perennial mysteries of the seasons and the soil, organized season by season, through the course of one year on the farm. This inspirational evocation of a life spent working the earth is certain to become a classic of nature writing, as well as appealing to today's burgeoning organic lifestyle audience. Scott Chaskey, 2005. 210 pp. $16.00*
- How to Keep Fresh Fruits & Vegetables Longer with Less Spoilage, A Storage Guide From Farm to Table, A handy quick reference for storing all your fresh produce published by NOFA-NY, by Tracy Frisch, 1986. 24 pp. $2.50*
- The Real Dirt Farmers Tell About Organic and Low-Input Practices in the Northeast, edited by Miranda Smith and Elizabeth Henderson, 1998. 264 pp. Now Reduced! $10.00*
- Organic Dairy Farming, A Resource for Farmers, Written for the transitioning and new organic farmer, this book explains everything from organic soil management, calf care and mastitis control to the certification process and marketing for the organic premium. Editor, Jody Padgham, 2006. 192pp. $20.00*
- Organic Dairy Production, The final of a series of handbooks on organic principles and practices published by NOFA, by Sarah Flack, 2005. 99 pp. $9.50*
- The Wisdom of Plant Heritage, Organic Seed Production and Saving, Part of a series of handbooks on organic principles and practices published by NOFA, by Bryan Connolly with C.R. Lawn, 2005. 99 pp. $9.50*
- Vegetable Crop Health, Helping Nature Control Diseases and Pests Organically, Part of a series of handbooks on organic principles and practices published by NOFA, by Brian Caldwell, 2004. 96 pp. $9.50*
- Whole-Farm Planning, Ecological Imperatives, Personal Values and Economics, Part of a series of handbooks on organic principles and practices published by NOFA, by Elizabeth Henderson and Karl North, 2004. 92 pp. $9.50*
- Compost, Vermicompost & Compost Tea, Feeding the Soil on the Organic Farm, Part of a series of handbooks on organic principles and practices published by NOFA, by Grace Gershuny, 2004. 89 pp. $9.50*
- Soil Resiliency and Health, Crop Rotation and Cover Cropping on the Organic Farm, Part of a series of handbooks on organic principles and practices published by NOFA, by Seth Kroeck, 2004. 88 pp. $9.50*
- The Organic Farmer's Guide to Marketing and Community Relations, Part of a series of handbooks on organic principles and practices published by NOFA, by Rebecca Bosch, 2004. 91pp. $9.50*
- Humane and Healthy Poultry Production, A Manual for Organic Growers, Part of a series of handbooks on organic principles and practices published by NOFA, by Karma Glos, 2004. 99 pp. $9.50*
- Organic Soil Management, The second in the series of handbooks on organic principles and practices published by NOFA, by Steve Gilman, 2001. 66 pp. $7.50*
- Organic Weed Management Concepts, strategies, and methods of controlling, The first in the series of handbooks on organic principles and practices published by NOFA, by Steve Gilman, 2000. 58pp. $7.50*
- Internships in Sustainable Farming: A Handbook for Farmers, by Doug Jones, 1999. 15 pp. $3.00*
- NOFA-NY Organic Tote Bag "Organic Food from Farm to Family" reusing this bag will help preserve our natural resources, made by Enviro-Tote. X-Large 15"hx18"lx6"w $15.00*
- NOFA-NY 100% Organic Cotton T-Shirts! New original artwork by Karen Kerney, bountiful, global, harvest scene, "Growing Organic for the Future". $15.00*
 Youth Sm___ Youth Med___ Small___ Med___ Large___ X-Large___ XX-Large___ XXX-Large___

All prices include postage and handling and are in U.S. currency. Additional postage will need to be added for purchases outside the continental United States. Please call to arrange prior to sending payment.

Sub Total_____ x 8% Sales Tax_____ Total: _____

Please make check payable to: NOFA-NY, Inc. or you can

Charge my Credit Card: _____

Exp. Date: _____ Signature: _____

Name: _____

Address: _____

City: _____ ST _____ Zip: _____

Phone: _____ Email: _____

You MUST click the orange Refresh Button to update the amounts. When the form is complete, click at right to Save or Print.